Susan and Sam Smith were enjoying themselves in London. They were lucky with the weather. No rain for ten days! They couldn't believe it, because England is well-known for bad weather.

The Smiths visited many historical places around the city. They went to the tower of London, which was built in 1080 by King William to keep the family safe. Later it became a prison(监狱). But now it is one of the oldest buildings in the city and a place for tourists.

Susan and Sam also went to Westminster abbey, the most famous old church in London. Many people are buried(埋葬)there. They found the names of kings, queens, poets and scientists. They thought there was so much more history in Britain than that in America.

The smiths also visited many museums. They went to British Museum, where they found works of art from Greece and Egypt. In the national gallery they saw fine examples of English art.

Susan and Sam were very happy at the end of every day in London. But they were also very, very tired. One evening they went to the opera at Covent Garden, but they both fell asleep in the middle of a song!
